Press release

Artworks invite us to read them over and over again, because good artworks will constantly create new dialogue ways or content together with viewers. For example, people may obtain new interpretations or opinions towards the same work when the context changes.

"Re-Reading", ShanghART Gallery's group show in Singapore, attempts to inspire visitors to explore and experience novel receptions from the artworks in different time, space and cultural contexts; it tries to stimulate visitors to be more sensitive towards the relationship between artworks and context.

ShanghART gallery was initiated in 1996 in Shanghai. It has since grown to become one of China's most influential art institutions and a vital resource to the development of contemporary art in China with two spaces in 50 Moganshan Road
