ShanghART Singapore is pleased to announce Realism & Fiction group exhibition from 12th December to 4th January 2015, exhibiting photography artworks from Chen Xiaoyun, Geng Jianyi, Jiang Pengyi, Yang Fudong and Zhu Jia, along with video works from Chen Xiaoyun and Geng Jianyi.

“All photographs are memento mori. To take a photograph is to participate in another person’s (or thing’s) mortality, vulnerability, mutability. Precisely by slicing out this moment and freezing it, all photographs testify to time’s relentless melt.” — Susan Sontag. It is photographs that make us possess reality and illusion, the present and the past at the same time. At the moment time melt, perhaps one can complete an unrealistic reconstruction.

ShanghART Gallery

ShanghART Gallery is one of the first galleries from China to participate in international art fairs such as Art Basel and FIAC in Paris. ShanghART Gallery is regarded as one of the key players in the development of contemporary art in China. It is also named one of the 75 most influential galleries in a Thames & Hudson publication, “International Art Galleries: Post-war to Post-millennium”. As ShanghART Gallery’s first overseas branch, ShanghART Singapore was opened in 2012, provides an array of artworks that reflect the present trends and developments of the Asian art world, set in the midst of natural greenery and historical buildings rich with Singapore’s colonial heritage.
